

PARENTING

*I don't teach my child how to be a child,
He comes knowing how to be a child.
As I get out of his way and really watch him,
He reminds me how to be child-like.*

*I can't teach my child how to be a God,
But as I live my true nature of genuine
happiness,
I try on Godhood and point him to God...
And let God teach him.*

*And, after "practicing" happiness with my child,
God will one day say (to us both):
"You are finished;
Welcome to Godhood!"*
